The Scheme Regulations allow you to nominate a co-habiting partner to receive a pension in the event of your death, provided the following apply:

- you have been free to marry each other or enter into a civil partnership with each other;
- you have lived together as if we were husband and wife or registered civil partners;
- neither of you have been living with someone else as if you were husband and wife or civil partners;
- your financial affairs have been interdependent, or the nominated partner has been financially dependent upon the Scheme member (financially interdependent means that you rely on your joint finances to support your standard of living).

I confirm that the information I have provided on this form is correct and complete, for the purposes of administering the Local Government Pension Scheme outlined above.
